From the Manse

Staying at home with children is not easy as we know, especially with six years old twin boys. I don't know how many of you know about the twins, my nephews who have come with their father from South Korea last November, and they stay with us most week days. Online home schooling with them is another level of difficulty, but it also entertains us sometimes as everything has two side.

When my wife helped the twins to study math, the question asked if 4 children in class A and 5 children in class B want to have pizzas for lunch, then how many pizzas do they need altogether? Then Hyun-dong wrote down 10.

"Why you think it's 10 if it's 4 plus 5?" Grace asked, then he said...

"I want have a pizza as well."

God always gives us something to enjoy.

Prayer Concerns

Whilst the Saturday prayer meeting no longer meets they still pray in their own homes. The concerns of those of our church at Trinity, the wider Methodist church and our town are all things held in prayer each week. If you would like the group to pray for you or a particular situation do please let Catherine Roots know. Catherine will share the needs of prayer requested with the group. Please note that this will be held as always in confidence within the group.

You can contact Catherine at catherine.roots1@ntlworld.com or LB 754789.

The Zoom Bible study for Lent.(from Rev. Seung-Wook Jung

I hope you've enjoyed the snow for the last few days.

We are approaching Easter and Lent already. It seems that we have lost a year to the pandemic.

During the Lenten season, we are slightly changing the arrangement of our Wednesday Zoom bible study. We are going to do it weekly from 17th February until Holy Week and we are opening two sections, one at 2pm and the other at 8pm on Wednesday. As it is the beginning of the Lenten bible study, we will join the Circuit's Ash Wednesday service on Wednesday 17th February.

If you want to join this bible study, please contact Catherine Roots.

Circuit Lent Course (information from Marina Mele)

Five study groups are taking place in the South Beds Circuit during Lent.

They are taking place on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings and on Wednesday afternoons – start times to be confirmed.

The study groups will be working through Woven – a Lent course produced by the London District and written by Revd Michaela Youngson, London District Chair and former Conference President.

Course materials can be downloaded from

<https://www.methodistlondon.org.uk/lentcourse2021>

I also have a number of hard copies. They will be particularly useful to people who may wish to join a study group by telephone.

Please let me know if you wish to join a group and I will send you information on joining the group as soon as it becomes available.

Pastoral Notice

Many thanks to all my friends at Trinity for all their love and support at this very sad time. I have been so overwhelmed by all the cards, flowers and telephone calls. I didn't realise how much Barry had touched so many people's lives. He will be very sadly missed. Barry's funeral service will be at The Bierton Crematorium on Friday 12th February at 12noon.

Donations to Dillamores for Royal British Legion and Macmillan.

The amount given to Trinity during January was £4,271. In addition we budget for income of £1,000 per month from gift aid. The amount required in income to balance our books is £7,100 per month.
